My career in science and science management

In 2014 I finished my PhD in Psychology on a neuroscientific topic. I spent 15 years in science management at institutions and universities such as Leipzig University, Max Planck Institute for Evolutionary Anthropology, Max Planck Institute for Cognitive and Brain Sciences, Leibniz Institute for Jewish Culture and History – Simon Dubnow. My last station in science management was at Zentrum für Lehrer:innenbildung und Schulforschung at Leipzig University as the Deputy CEO. Since 2021 I work part-time and since 2023 as Entrepreneur in Team and Organizational Development as well as in Coaching and Training.
